

AYSE GULER

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
ISTANBUL, TURKEY

December 16, 2019

Dear Ayse,

Congratulations! On behalf of the Admissions Committee, it is my distinct honor to share that you have been admitted to Drexel University. Your application revealed to us that you are the kind of ambitious and engaged student who thrives at Drexel, and we hope to see you here next year.

One of the nation's leading and most influential universities, Drexel has a history steeped in innovation, experiential learning, entrepreneurship, and civic engagement. This is a place that will allow you to turn your ambition into achievement and will provide opportunities and resources that will change the trajectory of your life.

Your admission is contingent on the successful completion of your existing academic program of study at a performance level comparable to the one presented in your application, including any predicted exam results. Be sure to visit our website to review our expectations for admitted students at drexel.edu/undergrad/resources/admitted.

To review more information about your admission to Drexel, view your financial aid awards, and to confirm your enrollment, visit Discover Drexel at discover.drexel.edu, logging in with your email address and account password.

Ayse, I could not be more excited to share this with you, and I hope you take some time over the next few weeks to celebrate your accomplishments. We look forward to meeting you soon and welcoming you to the Drexel community as one of our newest Dragons!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "EK Thimba".

Evelyn K. Thimba
Senior Vice President for Enrollment Management Enrollment Management & Student Success

P.S. Start connecting with your fellow new Dragons using #newdragons.